

CODE: ORANGE

art and design collide

Saturday

May 20, 2006

6 - 10 pm

Even DaVinci had to put down the mouse after a long day of designing fantastic weapons and flying machines and create some fine art for a change of pace. In that spirit, we're proud to call a CODE: ORANGE! Don't miss your opportunity to view and purchase the creative "collision" of some truly Renaissance Men and Women of the OC Graphic Design Community.
